

Made in the USA / BABA Compliant

Command Wallcovering is proudly manufactured in the United States by Fidelity Industries, a family-owned American company with over 50 years of experience in the wallcovering industry.

We produce high-performance, vinyl-backed wallcoverings that meet the highest standards of durability, design, and safety.

As a U.S.-manufactured product, Command Wallcovering qualifies as a 'manufactured product' under the Build America, Buy America Act (BABA). Our products are eligible for use in federally funded public infrastructure projects that require BABA compliance.

We are proud to support American manufacturing, jobs, and quality-delivering trusted wallcovering solutions nationwide and beyond.
